

Amazon Trekking / Camping Adventure

For this trip you will take along food, water, and camping gear, this will give you more time to explore the rainforest and learn about several survival techniques. We will provide all the camping gear, equipment, and supplies.

(Recommended 8 days / 7 nights but shorter or longer trips available)

Day 1 (trip starts after the arrival of people on LA 2240, scheduled to arrive just past noon)

- Transfer in from airport or hotel to dock to take boat to the lodge
Lunch, Dinner

Day 2-3 From main lodge Lodge

- Acclimation to the Amazon rainforest and getting to know your guides; your guides getting to know you. A Long hike in varzea forest; exploring flood forest and the canopy experience.
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4 Boat to the trailhead in terra firme forest

- Hiking to the interior of the wilderness to establish a campsite
- NOTE: We choose a site for camping where we will not disturb wildlife. Also the movements and noise we create while camping will keep wildlife at some distance. So, while this is a great adventure in the Amazon wilderness, it is not the best wildlife viewing option.
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5-6 At established campsite

- Exploring the remote wilderness of the Amazon with your private guide and an assistant guide.
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7 Boat to Main Lodge

- Morning exploration, then breaking down the campsite and returning in the afternoon by boat to the main lodge.
Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 8

- Morning at the main lodge
- Afternoon boat to Iquitos
- Transfer to airport or hotel
Breakfast, Lunch

A note on the two lodges:

The main lodge

- Cabins have private bathrooms
- A greater variety of activities

The Research Center Lodge (ARC)

- Cabins have shared bathrooms
- Better hiking, over 50 miles of trails through a variety of ecosystems
- More wildlife
- The lodge is more remote, in more pristine forest

Total 2019 Land cost: USD $1,995 per person
