Why is the Carnival Champions Parade the best way to enjoy the Carnival?

After the definition of the great Champion of the Carnival of Rio de Janeiro, on Ash Wednesday, the six best schools of the Carnival Special Group return to the Sambodrome the following Saturday, for the Parade of Champions. It all happens at the Sambodromo, an area in downtown Rio specifically designed and built to accommodate the samba parades. The Samba schools parade in descending order, culminating with the great champion.

The parade is exciting, with proud and relaxed school members celebrating the recognition of the judges and the public for their performances. The Sambodrome is packed with spectators and fans delighted with so much beauty!

Champions Parade Program 2023 - 05 Days and 04 Nights

Day 1 – Rio de Janeiro - Arrival

Rio By Night - Rio Scenarium(Private Tour - Duration – 05 hours)

This is the perfect attraction for those who want to discover Rio's cultural nightlife. The "Rio Scenarium" is a concert hall that appears as a differential in the cultural scene of Rio's nightlife. Located in the most typical bohemian neighborhood of the city, Lapa, the "Rio Scenarium" encourages the preservation of the old mansions in the neighborhood and tries to promote and rescue the best Brazilians and, above all, the best cariocas, musical traditions and form new audiences. The "Rio Scenarium" creates a pleasant and welcoming atmosphere, allied to the charm of the beautiful mansions of old Rio. Keeping a quality program, always with live Brazilian popular music, we are sure to offer the best to our Cariocas and local visitors.

Meals: Dinner (Snacks and drinks).

Day 2 – Rio de Janeiro

Breakfast at hotel.

Full day – Corcovado and Sugar Loaf with Stop for lunch (Private tour – Duration: 8 hours)

The passengers will leave your hotel for a full-day tour, passing through the beaches of Rio, taking you from Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas to the Cosme Velho neighborhood. There you'll board the Swiss-made cogwheel train for a scenic ride through Tijuca National Park until you reach the 710-meter summit of Corcovado. At the top of the mountain, carved in soapstone mosaic in the best art deco style, is Christ the Redeemer, a 38-meter-tall statue with arms outstretched as if it were a blessing to the city. The view from Corcovado offers a spectacular panorama of Rio and its surroundings. You will quickly understand why Rio is called the Marvelous City. After visiting Corcovado, you'll board the train to Cosme Velho station and head for lunch at a local steakhouse. The "churrasco" is a traditional way of preparing meat in southern Brazil (and Argentina). Guests will have the opportunity to try an infinite variety of meats served continuously, various side dishes and salads. After lunch, we will leave to the Urca neighborhood to board the cable car for a two-stage trip that will take us to Sugarloaf Mountain. In the first stage, Morro da Urca, with only 220 m high, there is a restaurant, amphitheater and heliport for panoramic tours. The second stage takes us to Pão de Açúcar, named after the sugar bars that the Portuguese used to use at the time of the discovery of the city. From both places, guests will have a wonderful view of the most famous places in Rio, such as the beaches of Copacabana, Ipanema and Leblon, as well as Botafogo and Flamengo that lead to the city center, Christ the Redeemer and the Rio-Niterói bridge. At any time of day or night, the view from Sugarloaf Mountain is extraordinarily beautiful, making Sugarloaf Mountain, without a doubt, one of the most famous places in the city. After visiting the Sugar Loaf Mountain, the tour continues towards the downtown with a stop at the Metropolitan Cathedral, a large cone-shaped building with impressive stained-glass windows. After this visit, a quick panoramic view of downtown Rio and return to the hotel.

Lunch at Carretão Ipanema Brazilian Barbecue Restaurant (Not Included)

The "churrasco" is a traditional Brazilian southern (and Argentinean) way of preparing the meats. The guests will have the opportunity of tasting an endless variety of meat served continuously, several garnish and salads. After desert, a Brazilian coffee will be served to complete the typical gastronomic experience. Barbecue and salad buffet, drinks not included. Return to hotel.

Meals: Breakfast included.

Day 3 – Rio de Janeiro

Breakfast at hotel.

Carnival Day Experience (Semi Private - Shared Tour / Transfer and Samba Class Private – Duration: 6 hours)

On this day we will have a complete Carnival experience. We will visit "Cidade do Samba", this place is the shed of the Samba Schools, where they prepare during the year for their presentation at Carnival. All Samba cars and costumes are produced there. After the class, we will take a guided tour of the warehouse of one of the main samba schools in Rio de Janeiro and learn about the history of samba and the carnival parades as we get into the samba atmosphere trying on some authentic carnival costumes while enjoying a caipirinha. And to finish, in this same place, we will have a lively Samba class, this a contagious rhythm and no one can stand still. Return to the Hotel.
