

CASA DE ALIAGA

with a Luxury host:
Wilma Ehni de Aliaga

Casa Aliaga stands right at the heart of the Historic Center of the city of Lima. This great mansion was built by Jerónimo de Aliaga, one of the original band of Spanish conquistadores led by Francisco Pizarro, and one of the founders in 1535 of the city of Lima.

It is now one of the oldest buildings in Lima, and it has been occupied continuously throughout its history by the same family. One of Jerónimo de Aliaga's descendants, Wilma Ehni de Aliaga, will guide us during our visit to this magnificent house.

Enjoy a tour of this historic family home with Wilma and learn from her the many secrets of the oldest house in the Americas.
