

CCORCCOR

when an entire community connects with you

If you like to feel the wind in your face as you gaze upon the unfiltered spectacle of a breathtaking landscape... Climb aboard a quad bike! You can travel from the shores of Lake Piuray on your way to the community.

It all begins with the welcome. Many smiles, bunches of balloons, and suddenly you find yourself being adorned with a garland of fresh flowers. The joyousness of the villagers, who sing and dance in their finest clothes to welcome you. In Ccorccor, a village where indigenous women can work and raise their children, authenticity, happiness and hospitality are the hallmark of the community.

And to end our tour, just for you, we'll erect a Bedouin tent where you can enjoy a luxurious picnic lunch, surrounded by the peaceful setting of the lake and marvelous landscapes.

About the activities:

- Let's play together: The spinning top, the ring, Plac Plic (Hopscotch)
- How to prepare the corn drink known as "chicha"
- Tribute to Mother earth
- Linderaje (Ritual walk)*
- Andean Carnival
