

SHOPPING IN BARRANCO

how to transform shopping into an art form

If you want to visit Barranco and do some shopping, the best way is with a local person: a BARRANQUINO.

Our hostess has always lived in Barranco, and in addition to being a great cook she also has exquisite taste and an in-depth knowledge that will take you to the best places in Barranco for eating, shopping and strolling.

Do you want to buy gifts? Or perhaps you're interested in art and fashion? With her, you can visit designer stores, ateliers and galleries during a morning filled with surprises.

And why not make a brief stop to enjoy a cup of Peruvian coffee at a small and welcoming place in the bohemian Barranco district?

This tour ends at an organic food store where you can buy the most exquisite local chocolate and other gourmet delights.
