

DIEGO ALCANTARA

Sharing the Table with the Chef

Live a genuine experience by sharing a table with Diego Alcántara, a talented Peruvian chef responsible for internationalizing one of the most emblematic cevicherías in Peru: "La Mar".

Our meeting will take place in a restaurant personally chosen by Diego. What will follow will be an incredible journey in time where we will learn about the strong Japanese influence in ceviche; that the real creators of our emblematic lomo saltado are the Chinese immigrants and; that ají de gallina and anticuchos are an exquisite blend of Moorish and African gastronomic roots.
