

GUSTAVO LEON

Ancestral Musical Traditions

An architect by trade but a musician by heart, Gustavo Leon has devoted almost all of his adult life to researching and preserving ancestral Andean instruments and music.

Andean harp, charango, cajon.... Spend an afternoon with Gustavo in a fun yet profound journey back in time, learning about Peruvian history and culture through our musical heritage, one that reflects an amazing fusion between our Andean past and European, African and Asian influences.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF TRAVELERS : 2
MAXIMUM NUMBER OF TRAVELERS : 15*
DURATION : 1 HOUR 30 MIN. APPROXIMATELY

*The number of travelers may vary depending on the venue