

PALCOYO

Rainbow Trio

Enjoy a moderate walk and discover a peaceful place where rainbows have been transformed into mountains. Situated near the sacred peak of Mount Ausangate, Palcoyo is just 3 hours and 30 minutes from the city of Cusco, and it offers a more easily accessible alternative to Vinicunca for those wishing to experience the mountains of seven colors, making it ideal for families or older travelers.

The sight of three imposing multicolored peaks is a remarkable experience, with their tones produced by the gradual depositing of different sediments. Take the time to appreciate the natural beauty of the surroundings and enjoy the peaceful location.

To complete this adventure, see the Inca suspension bridge at Checacupe, built by the Quechua people to connect the roads of the Inca empire.
