This is the recommended excursion for those who want to contemplate and enjoy most of the Torres del Paine National Park in one day and without any physical effort. We will start our excursion to the Forestry Corporation Visitor Center where we will receive general information about everything that constitutes this magnificent World Biosphere Reserve. Our trip continues towards the Salto Grande, an imposing waterfall that can be seen after a short walk and where we have a view of the Paine Grande Mountain, and can observe the highest peak of the Paine Range. Then we will go to the Lago Nordenskjöld viewpoint, place where we will appreciate this lake and we will be very close to the Horns of the Paine. Then we will head towards the Amarga Lagoon area to see the Paine River Falls, and begin to see the first panoramic views of the famous Torres del Paine. We will continue to the other end of the Park, to have lunch in Laguna Azul, a quiet and beautiful area of the park where we will have a picnic to recover our energy.

We start very early in the morning, leaving the hotel and walking along the Pingo River to the “Chorrillo Los Salmones” waterfall. After walking almost 1 hour and a half, we will go to the Pingo Valley, where we will be lucky enough to advance through a privileged forest which has not been touched by the fires of the park, keeping intact the habitat of the flora and fauna of forest. As we walk through the forest we will have climbs and descents, which can be more difficult when it rains as the path becomes soft. As we find clearings of forest, we will have a different view of the Paine Range. After walking between 2 and 2 hours and half hours, we will arrive at the viewpoint of the Pingo Cascade. An imposing fast water that we will appreciate from close up to have lunch and take a break after the long walk before returning to the hotel by the same path. With some luck it is possible to see flora and fauna that is very different from the rest of the park, since the transit of people is not authorized without a guide with the respective certification.

We leave early in the morning on a 1 hour drive that takes us from the hotel to our starting point. Once there, you will immediately notice the presence of different Guanaco herds inhabiting the area.

The trail is not difficult, therefore, this hike is totally recommended for everyone. Once you get immerse in the trail you will realize that this is a wonderful opportunity to take great pictures of Cóndors, Grey Fox and even Puma (if you are very lucky).

A very interesting part of this excursion is the possibility to witness remnants of the native Aonikenk culture through cave paintings displayed on the walls of the mountain.

The excursion ends with a visit to Lago Sarmiento. This lake may be considered as a shelter of one of the most primitive life forms on the planet.

After around 1 hour and a half driving, we arrive at Portería Laguna Verde. Then, we continue our trip to “Estancia Lazo” which is the starting point for this full day excursiOn.

The amazing panoramic view you have there is definitely one of the main reasons to visit this place. What is more, a native forest and flora together with lagoons with a considerable variety of birds make this hike an ideal and unique opportunity to explore and learn.

Once we reach Lago Toro lookout point, we begin our way down alongside a steep trail, it is highly necessary to use trekking poles (which will be lent by the guide).

One of the most famous hikes of the Paine trails, it is demanding, but it rewards you with the imposing view of the three granite towers. This walk is characterized by its great ascent towards the viewpoint. The climb is for 1 hour bordering the Ascencio River until arriving at the Passage of the Winds. From here it is 30 minutes to the Chilean Camp where we can take a little break. The hike continues to climb the forest for 1.5 more hours, gaining height quickly and having incredible views of geological formations such as crevices, fractures and granite intrusions. The last hour is the toughest, where the trail zigzags up a moraine or loose rock, being exposed to the wind and with an unpredictable climate. Arriving at the viewpoint we will have the classic view of the Towers from near and if the weather permits we can have lunch with this fantastic landscape in front of us. The descent starts on the same trail and takes approximately 4 hours to reach the starting point, so you definitely need good knees and a solid physical condition. This excursion is hard and exhausting for those who are not accustomed to long distance walks.
