Stay in beautiful Matetic Vineyard, surrounded by vines with the tranquility of rural life in the central valleys of Chile. Then you will enjoy overlooking the Pacific Ocean, at Casa Doca. The perfect locations for an in depth exploration of the best that central Chile has to offer, with excursions ranging from the historic, cultural and the best outdoor activities, making travelers experiences unique and unforgettable.

Santiago is Chile's capital and is located in the country's central valley. Known as a cosmopolitan city it offers a variety of attractions and highlights. In addition, because of its location between the Chilean Coastal Range and the Andes Mountains, Santiago is just a few hours away from snowcapped mountains, roaming vineyards or warm sunshiny beaches. Similarly, only a short drive away are the seaside towns of Viña del Mar (also known as the garden city) and Valparaíso famous for its colorful hills and neighborhoods. Central Chile offers the best of both worlds not only with its ideal location but it is also the perfect mix between colonial and modern.
